

2018 Online KT Conference: Engaging Ways to Engage Stakeholders

November 5, 7 and 9, 2018

1:00 – 5:00 pm ET

This sixth virtual conference is designed to address major strategies in the planning and implementation of effective and efficient KT measurement approaches. Participants will be able to register, view and ask questions through the event's virtual conference platform, Adobe Connect. The event will occur over three days on November 5, 7 and 9 between 1 and 5 pm ET each day.

- Monday (Nov. 5) – How to engage stakeholders early: Project planning strategies and integrated KT
- Wednesday (Nov. 7) – How to engage stakeholders often: Implementation and evaluation strategies
- Friday (Nov. 9) – How to know you've had an impact on stakeholders: Measurement and sustainability

There is no fee to participate but all must register by close of business Friday, November 2, 2018. Participants will listen using their computer speakers and will interact by way of a chat box (CART and accessible options will be available). Each day will include live polls, as well as interactive discussions with volunteer reactors following each presentation.
