How do you engage advisory board members in your project?

As an advisory board member, what helps to keep you engaged?

Do you define explicit expectations guiding advisory board members?

How do you foster meaningful engagement among advisory board members?

Do you have a method for continuous improvement of your board?

How do you budget to sustain your advisory board?

Have you credited your advisory board in your project's products?

What are qualities of an advisory board that you feel effectively encourages participation amongst its board members?

Key Takeaways

- Identify when and for what purposes you engage stakeholders and advisory board members
- Clearly define expectations by board members
- Design processes for meaningful engagement, by listening to members, plan for accessibility, and an acknowledgement of perceived or real power differentials of board members
- Continuously seek feedback and improve your advisory board
- Credit your advisory board as appropriate
- Budget for your advisory board
